VOTE MAY 4 and 5

Elections of PSA officers for the 1954-55 school year will be held May 4 and 5, next Tuesday and Wednesday.

In accordance with its policy of serving the campus, the Pacific Weekly is donating the following space to the presentation of the platforms of the candidates for PSA president and vice-president.

Don Fado, PSA Presidential Candidate:

I believe in a well rounded social program. I am not necessarily advocating more social events, but a program that has more informal activities like the Knoles Birthday Party, Arbor Day and Play Night in the gym.

Closer student-senate relations is another important element in my plan of action. The town meeting was good, and so was the president's council. More of these things should be carried on. There must be a way for students to know what had been done in the senate, and the agenda for each meeting. Students should be made to feel welcome at all senate meetings.

A very good program which has just gotten under way this year is the off-campus students' organization. This is definitely a

Jack Mansfield, PSA Presidential candidate:

There should be a student recruitment program in as much to encourage outstanding high school students in many fields of study to come to the COP campus.

We should further the off-campus organization in student activities, orientation for new off-campus students and consider them when planning the proposed Student Union Building.

Bud Sullivan, PSA Vice-Presidential candidate:

Since Jack Mansfield, the candidate for PSA President, has stated our approximate program in his article, I will simply clarify.

The Pacific Student Association should personally conduct a student recruitment program. This will bolster each department on our campus by bringing people of academic achievement to our college.

Larry Wells, PSA Vice-Presidential candidate:

Being a candidate for the office of vice-president for the coming school year, I am giving you, the PSA students my intentions for this job, if I am elected.

I am not running on any particular platform; because to me, a political platform is only a group of idealistic sounding phrases, phrases based on idealism rather than realistic thinking.

Library Progresses

The new library should be finished about a year from now.

The library will hold about eighty-two hundred thousand volumes, and will have reading rooms, a typing room, and a room for micro-film. It will be a two-story building, and as Sherman Spencer put it politely, "the architecture is so called 'Collegiate Gothic,'" so it should fit in with the campus architecture. The stacks will be upstairs, and the reference material, and periodicals will be downstairs.

The teams of Alan Glueck and Ron Bondoc from Fresno High School and Evelyn Griswold and Frank Dannrell from Modesto High School won top honors and consequently will compete in the State Finals to be held in Santa Barbara later in the year.

Jim Lewis and Leon McGarrah, COP graduate students, managed the tournament.

There were 20 radio contestants competing under the management of John Crabbe. Peter Ritson of Marin Catholic High School was awarded first place in Boy's Radio, and Jackie Marshall of Oakland High School was the winner in Girl's Radio.

The events were judged by townspeople, COP students, and faculty members.

Evelyn Griswold was rated the Outstanding Girl and Ron Bondoc the Outstanding Boy.

PSA Elections

Jor and Marianne Tyler, Zeta Phi affiliated freshman are the two candidates for the off-campus organization's vice presidential post.

At the writing of this story Rusty Straub, drama major and Epsilon affiliate of the freshman class was the only candidate for secretary.

The office of treasurer finds Jane Curry, another freshman Zeta Phi, and honor list junior Mario Canepa in contention for the post.

Deadline for off campus students' petitions is not May 3 as was erroneously printed in last week's Weekly, but May 1 at 4:00 p.m.

Also to appear on the preferential ballot of the off-campus students is the proposition aimed at financing the organization. That proposition is "The off campus student shall pay an additional dollar above the usual price of the PSA card."

If this proposition is passed the money collected will be budgeted by the PSA directly into the off-campus students' account. This proposition would put the off campus students financially on par with the campus living groups.

CSTA Officials Are Elected

C.S.T.A. officials for next year were elected Monday night by the student teachers' organization on campus. The new cabinet is: president, George Boyko; first vice-president, Marla Ann Milion; second vice-president, Huberta Williams; secretary, Betty Whittle, and treasurer, Eugene Garibaldi.

ON THE AIR

By "LIZ" LASKIN

After many hours of distributing, collecting, and tabulating, the Radio Pacific survey has been completed. The results were not alarming in the sense that any of the findings were unexpected. However, the problem of reception is obviously a kingsized problem and KCVN will do everything in its power (and I do mean power) to remedy the situation. Please understand that the operation of repairing the campus system is not a matter of a few hours' work but rather of several days. Nevertheless, the entire wired wireless system will be completely overhauled this summer so until then, please keep your dial set at 660 because we are readily putting your suggestions into effect.

Also, MANY THANK YOU'S for your cooperation in filling in the survey sheets. It is very difficult to take a survey on this campus since there are so many comedians. Nevertheless, if the person tabulating can recognize Archania's humor, she can detect that there are two ways of saying everything. Example: "Blow up transmitter." Or: "Get better reception." We intend to do the latter.

All in all, you are to be commended on your ability to mark x's, and to the nine living groups on campus I personally extend my thanks for your time and believe me, Radio Pacific will endeavor to give you broadcasting with zest; broadcasting that's best.

Top Physics Student To Be Awarded Free Text.

The top student in first-year physics in both Stockton College and Pacific will be awarded a copy of the Handbook of Chemistry and Physics. A large reduction will be given to other students. Now in its 35th edition, the Handbook has become not only a most complete source of physical and chemical data, but also one of the best organized and indexed reference books in existence.

On May 4 and 5 to the polls you'll go to support your favorites and defeat the foe.

For President you'll choose a man who'll give his best to the Pacific clan.

Vice President, Secretary, and on down the line.

You place your X by the candidate "most fine".

Annual Women's "Y" Breakfast Will Be Given Sunday, May 2

Like strawberries and cream? Biscuits and jam? If you're like most everyone about this time of year you start longing for that red, ripe, luscious queen of the berry family, the juicy strawberry. And here's your chance to get all you can eat along with hot biscuits, jam and coffee, for just 75c.

You can enjoy this tasty fare on this Sunday, May 2nd by attending the annual Women's Y Strawberry Breakfast. There will be strawberries galore for everyone out on the lawn by Sorority Circle. Tickets, which are only 75c may be obtained before or at the breakfast itself.

Hours for the breakfast are 8:30 to 10:30, and upon arriving you will be seated at a gaily covered table out in the early morning sunshine. Promptly a trim aproned Women's Y member will place before you a heaping bowl of huge strawberries with cream, biscuits, jam and coffee. And seconds and thirds and even fourths are the general practice.

Chairman for the affair is Sharon Pruner, and committees working under her are as follows: tickets, Ruth Dow; food, Jane Barrett and Dorothy Fischer; destemming, Alice Shirley; serving, Jo Ann Wild; tables, Royanne Fefley; publicity, Nadine Reasoner. Co-chairman is Betty Orton. Faculty advisors are Miss Harriet Sheldon, Miss Lorraine Knoles, and Mrs. Al Painter.

Tau Kappa Kappa, with Phyllis Chamberlain in charge, are responsible for clean-up; Alpha Theta Tau, with Dorothy Fisher as chairman, for biscuits and coffee; and Epsilon Lambda Sigma for the strawberries and jam with Alice Shirley in charge.

Every Wednesday evening at 7:00, Vesper services are held in Morris Chapel for prayer and meditation. Vespers offer an opportunity to students who want an escape from the pressures of student life and social activities.

During the service there are short silences, accompanied by organ music, for individual meditation and prayer. Each service has a student leader who reads short devotionals and prayers.

Vesper services offer practice to pre-ministrial students who wish to strengthen their own convictions and associate with students who want to attain the same goals.

Vespers are open to all students wishing to spend a few quiet moments in silent prayer.

Student Travel Organization Announces '54 Program; Memberships Available

The Experiment in International Living, a non-profit student travel organization announces its 1954 summer program. Under The Experiment plan, carefully selected young people between the ages of 16 and 30 go abroad to make friends and to come to know one country well, rather than to tour in several countries. They travel in groups of ten under the guidance of a qualified leader, selected for his experience in living in the country visited.

Applications for membership from College girls can still be accepted for Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Holland, Ireland, Italy, Scotland and Yugoslavia.

ORGAN RECITAL TO BE TUESDAY

Claire Coci, the attractive young organist of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, will be heard in recital Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Conservatory Auditorium. The program is open to the public without charge, although an offering will be taken to defray expenses.

Miss Coci will play solo numbers from Bach through the romantics and moderns, and will be assisted by a quartet of string players from the Conservatory Orchestra, prepared by Horace I. Brown. The program will include the Western premiere of a new work written for her by the American composer, Camil Van Hulse.

A pupil of the celebrated French organist, Marcel Dupre, the young artist has concertized extensively throughout the world, particularly under the auspices of the American Guild of Organists, whose local chapter is sponsoring her COP appearance.

A member of Mu Phi Epsilon, the national honorary music sorority, Miss Coci received her degrees from the University of Michigan. She is now head of the organ departments at the Mannes and Dalcroze conservatories.

Her recital will mark the first time in many years that the four-manual Conservatory organ, the largest and most complete in the area, will be played by a nationally known artist.

For College men there are openings in all these countries and also in the groups going to England, India, Mexico, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey.

Applications can be accepted through June 1. Those interested should write to Chairman, Admissions Committee, The Experiment in International Living, or to their college representative: Dr. Mitchell.

The groups will leave on five different sailings between June 19 and 29 aboard Holland-America line ships and those chartered by the Council on Student Travel.

Average costs for Europe run from $695 to $775; for the two groups going to Mexico, $390; and for the group leaving for India in October, $1245.

Members of Experiment groups spend one month living in individual families within a single community. Sharing in everyday family life and visiting nearby points of interest they come to understand what makes the nation "tick" from the inside. To round out their experience within the country they spend the second month exploring its various regions—by bicycle, bus or train — in the company of their U.S. group members and young hosts from their adopted families.

Some groups spend a few days at the end of the summer in a capital city like London or Paris, when those who are qualified may elect to travel independently.

Language credit for participation in a foreign-languagespeaking group has been granted in several colleges. Colgate University tests indicate that in terms of language comprehension, an Experiment experience equals two semesters of language study.

In-service teachers' training credit has been awarded to Experiment leaders.

Partial scholarships for participation in an Experiment program are awarded every year by various organizations and colleges, or by The Experiment itself.

Don Fado, speaking on the topic, "The American Voter's Responsibility," was chosen the winner of the recent speech contest sponsored on campus by Gaines Market.

This contest, which has been held each of the last three semesters, is open to one speaker from each fundamentals of speech class. Each class selected a speaker to represent it; and for the first time, all the contestants were boys.

Delbert Evans, who spoke on "Socially Maladjusted People," was second place winner. Kevin McCrary and George Tchobanoglous tied for third place and the audience broke the tie by judging McCrary as third.

Field Trip Studio at Dillon Beach Not Restricted to Marine Biology

By BEV ING

Destination—Dillon Beach. Off we go. We left Pacific's campus not knowing what to expect. Some left in groups while others braved the trip alone. We reached our destination and became a happy family.

Classes!! Oh yes — we had classes. Marine Biology for us and Field Biology for others. Of course, there were a few (Bob Mir, Chester Lee, Ed Chin, Bob Heitman and David Cass) enrolled in graduate courses. The chiefs of our family were Dr. Noble and Dr. Arnold. They gave us our orders and we listened intently. A groan was heard now and then, but that was just in the game.

The chief's orders were not bad at all, but isn't it just natural for homo sapiens to complain?

A boat trip on Sunday—sounds like a vacation to be sure. We had many clients who wanted new homes and we aimed to please. Thus — they moved from the deep ocean to our laboratory. Science marches on.

Whoever studies on a Sunday night? It was time for a party. Many had the opportunity of meeting the great Ebby Meyers, undoubtedly the best letter writer ever to hit Dillon Beach. Classes would be in full swing but that didn't seem to bother anyone. It was hard to persuade anyone to go to bed. Special photographer for the event was Phil Miyamoto, ably assisted by Larry Allin.

And the next day — we hiked to the mud flats over hill and dale. It seemed as though we would never reach an end. In fact, I often wondered if we were the first to explore that area.

Food — an important item on our week's stay at Dillon Beach. Everyone had the opportunity to prepare meals and to wash dishes. The crew that seemed to have the most talent was given the chance to work quite often. In fact, they broke the time record in dish washing and they were becoming quite proficient in cooking. The crew — Nancy Kaljian, Bev Lloyd, Bev Ing, Bob Heitman and Ed Denuit.

I don't believe George Pope, Gene Sosnick (ex-Pacificite) and John Barket will ever forget their breakfast served in bed. Rumor has it that Mr. Pope thought that the tray would be thrown at him. There is still some kindness left in human beings.

Friday, the night before our big "exam." Study, study, study — a few minutes for coffee — then back to studying — another minute for a piece of gum — study, study — more coffee. Breakfast in the morn. Back to our books and then our final exam. That was over soon enough — and what a sigh of relief.

A rush to pack up our troubles and dirty clothes and we were headed for home.

To appreciate the value of a week at Dillon Beach you will have to experience it yourself. See you at Dillon; come next Easter.

AMBITIOUS SCHEDULE FOR 1954 GRIDDERS

The announcing of the 1954 football season brings to light the fact that Pacific will undertake its most ambitious schedule to date.

The list of opponents names many of the top teams in the nation. Such nationally ranked squads as Stanford, Indiana, and Texas Tech fill the slate.

The emphasis will be placed next year upon much long traveling as the Tigers will make many cross-country jaunts to meet their opponents. Long trips will take place to meet Tulsa, Cincinnati, Indiana, Syracuse, and Washington State.

The season opener will bring to Tigerville the revenge-minded Stanford Indians. Following last year's upset at the hands of the Bengals, Stanford will definitely be out to amend the loss. A real thriller should develop.

The caliber of opposition makes it clear that Pacific will find each successive Saturday as rugged as the previous. The athletic office is still in the process of completing a nine or ten game schedule. Several teams are in consideration but the officials involved do not wish to make a statement at this time as to who they are.

This Monday will mark the opening of Spring practice at Pacific. The coaching staff will be on hand to greet an impressive list of returning lettermen and a host of outstanding freshmen and Junior College transfers. In the light of last year's season and the supplement of material to those returning, Coach Myers should fashion for the Tiger fans a great squad.

Starting May 12th there will be an Intramural Golf Tournament held at Swenson Park. It will be single elimination and there will be awards for first and second places.

Sign up sheets may be located at the Athletic Office or contact Dr. Voltmer or Bob Giardina.

Also there are sign-up sheets for the annual Intramural Tennis Tournament.

TIGERS SWIM POTENT STANFORD SQUAD IN HOME MEET SAT.

In an extra added attraction, the College of the Pacific Tiger swim team will engage the potent Stanford Indian tank team tomorrow in the Bengal pool.

The first event is slated to be run off at 3:00 sharp.

The feature races of the day are expected to be in the sprint events where the competition is expected to be between the Indian's Jim Gaughran and the Tigers' Dickson Hoogs. Both of them have recorded the top sprint times on the coast this year.

Gaughran has best times in meets of a 52.3 in the 100 yd. freestyle and a 23.2 in the 50 yd. freestyle.

Hoogs has recorded a 52.6 for the 100, and a 23.7 in the 50.

Gaughran, the stellar Stanford performer, is a brother of Stockton College's Bob Gaughran who also has been turning in terrific times in his specialty, the backstroke, in Junior College circles.

Exciting Evening For Fans At Annual Sports Show

By GEORGE FOWLER

The sound of leather against flesh marked the 1954 Spring sports show, as student pugilists matched themselves against one another in the Pacific gymnasium last Wednesday night.

The first event of the evening saw Dave Franceschini take to the canvas against John O'Connell. O'Connell scored knock-downs in every round, to win the only knock-out fight on the score card. Extemporaneous slugging marked the fight between Clarence Irving and Roger Owen. The win was by an unanimous decision, all judges voting for Irving.

A second consecutive unanimous decision by the judges, had Joe Delgado winning over Don Krieger. Krieger was knocked down in the first of the three round contest.

Bob Lee, at 191 pounds took on Jack O'Rourke, who weighed in at 192. The fighting in this event was even all the way, and the decision was a unanimous draw.

What may have been the most entertaining bout of the evening was the contest between Willie Richardson and Art Liebscher. The contestants alternately slugged, lunged, boxed and grinned, as Liebscher gained a unanimous decision over his opponent.

The main event placed A. D. Williams against Ed Griffith. Williams at 196 pounds carried the fight all the way to Griffith at 198. Griffith was knocked down in the second round, and again in the third, giving Williams a technical knockout.

Immediately preceding the ten-minute intermission half-way through the fighting, was an exhibition of judo, in which Ben Cahill and Jim Fleming were contestants. The exhibition, a no-decision affair, entertained the crowd with various types of holds, throws and falls.

The perennially popular event, the battle royal had four contestants, each blindfolded and with an arm tied behind them.

The crowd of more than four hundred roared, as Jack Meeks, Roger Linn, Tom Green, and Nick Romanoff lunged paralyzingly at one another. A best two-out-of-three round event, Jack Meeks took the first round, as the remaining three fighters alternately lipped or were knocked down.

At the beginning of the second round, Nick Romanoff unhinged with the blood lust, prematurely began the fight, slashing viciously at the air, until his seconds could bring him back to his corner.

Again Jack Meeks was the last man standing, and accordingly was awarded the win. (Continued on Page Seven)

ALL-AMERICAN KEN BUCK ON THE MEND

Ken Buck College of the Pacific's gift to the 1953 All-American football team is currently recuperating from his recent illness. Big Ken was in the infirmary for a kidney operation last month. While in the infirmary Doctor Langley Collis discovered that Ken was suffering from a malignant tumor condition.

First medical reports were that Ken would be unable to continue his career on the gridiron this season and possibly for good. Now after weeks of daily X-ray treatments, Ken stands a good chance of breaking into the football limelight again this season with the professional New York Giants.

Ken himself is very optimistic concerning his return to football. He states, "When I regain the 25 pounds that I lost due to my recent illness I'll be willing, and I hope, able to join the Giants training site in Williamette, Oregon."

The nice weather these past few weeks has furnished Ken with an excellent opportunity of getting out in the "fresh air" and getting in some hunting and fishing, two pastimes that the big end really "eats up."

Candidates for the new spring sport entitled "Mardi-Gras Queens" are being reviewed by the Queen Selection Committee.

Tiger's den...

By NORM HARRIS

THE OTHER DAY we had the pleasure of meeting and talking to the new athletic director of Bengaltown, Paul Christopolous, in a more or less informal interview.

While talking to him, we were distinctly impressed by several of his "hopes for the future" and by his very pleasant personality.

He was a perfect picture of a busy, bustling executive and yet, while we had the chance to observe while waiting and later during the interview, had the marked ability to make every person that he happened to be conversing with feel that he was devoting all of his time to each individual.

Later at a P.S.A. Senate meeting we were again impressed with his natural ease and confidence in meeting and talking to people and are sure that he is going to fit into the picture perfectly here at Pacific.

Might we say, "Definitely an asset to the College of the Pacific."

While in our further wanderings about campus we ran into several other sports notes that might be of interest to the reader.

WE HEARD THAT Dickson Hoogs, swift Bengal swim man, is preparing to join the football ranks in spring practice after this Saturday's meet against the Stanford Indian.

By the way, the Stanford meet promises to be a real thriller in the sprints, what with the aforementioned Hoogs and a stellar member of the Indian swim team, Jim Gaughran, holding the top sprint times on the Coast for this season.

SPEAKING OF SWIMMING, we understand that the annual Intramural swim meet will be held on Tuesday, May 11, and again it promises to be another topnotch feature of the Intramural program.

While we're on the subject, we heard that the Pacific swimming pool has the rather dubious distinction of being known as the "Black Hole of Stockton" owing this distinction, no doubt, to the fact that the pool hasn't been painted for at least ten years that we know of. Probably could use it . . . ?

SWITCHING TO ANOTHER of our favorite topics, football, we noticed in the Stockton Record the other night that they are becoming worried about the depth of the quarterback position next semester. Might we add that we are, too. Not that we don't have the quality in Bill Jacobs, who, incidentally, should be one of the finest quarterbacks in the nation next year, but what if he should become injured?

A REMEDY FOR the following year has been brought to our attention with a brush-in with a former school mate at Stockton College who has been attending Cal for the past year. His name is Jerry Gillespie and he informed us that he is intending to enroll at COP next semester. In case you didn't know, he was an All-Conference quarterback in the Big Seven Conference while at Stockton College and was playing the number two q.b. position in Cal's spring practice of 1953 before he reinjured an old back injury.

Too bad he can't be eligible for next season's play.

FINALLY, and as an extra added attraction, Gene Cronin wanted his name in the paper so there it was . . . and goodnight, Mrs. Bezates, wherever you are.

TRACK TEAM WINDS UP SCHEDULE WITH LOSS AT S.F. STATE

By winning nine first places and tying for another, San Francisco State's Track and Field Squad walked all over our Pacific Bengals as they drove to a resounding 77 1/2 to 53 1/2 in a dual meet last Saturday.

Five Tiger athletes accounted for 37 points. Jack Marden scored a double win, running a 4:42.4 mile and a 2:00.0 half mile while also pulling out a third place in the two mile grind.

George Lane fell below ten points for the first time this season, winning the shot-putt with a heave of 45 feet and placing third in the broad jump.

The Tigers travel to San Jose State today. This marks the end of a rebuilding season at Pacific and next year's outlook seems to be bright. State appears to be very strong in several events and should provide quite a tussle for our boys.

Tennis Team Meets Mather Field; Drops 2

The Tiger Tennis team leaves this afternoon for their second encounter of the year with Mather Air Force Base in Sacramento. Their previous meeting with this team, on home courts, saw the Bengal netmen take their only victory of the year, 5-4.

In the past week, the tennis team was nosed out by powerful Sacramento State 5-4, on the Oak Park Courts. First singles saw Paul Willy, Canadian Davis Cupper, beat George Fowler, 6-1, 6-1.

Last Friday afternoon, the team lost to Fresno State, five matches to one on the Bulldogs

Seating For Stanford Game Being Handled By P.S.A. and Athletic Dept.

Seating arrangements are now being made by the Pacific Student Association and the Athletic Department for next fall's opening football game with the Stanford University Indians in Pacific Memorial Stadium.

Last week, Al Masters, Stanford's Athletic Director, asked if it would be possible to reserve three sections of seats at the stadium. Masters expects about 1000 Stanford students to travel up to Stockton for the contest. In addition to the students, room has to be made for an estimated 5,000 to 10,000 Stanford Alumni and season ticket throng around the valley area. Last year when Pacific journeyed to Palo Alto our students and ticket holders were given 50 yard line seats, so Stanford would naturally like the same in Memorial Stadium.

To do this and allow the Stanford people three sections, a special Senate meeting was called and after several suggestions a recommendation was made that the Pacific Student Body move across to the opposite side of the field and sit adjacent to the Tiger Season Ticket Holders. By doing this for this "one" game it would afford Stanford 3 sections of seats and at the same time solve the seating problem of the migrating Pacific students.

Baseballers Look For Victory Against USF; Wind Up Season

The College of the Pacific Tigers close out their 1954 baseball season tomorrow in a double header with the USF Dons at San Francisco.

Last Saturday the Bengals losing streak stretched to fourteen games as the San Jose State Spartans made a clean sweep of their double header with the Tigers. The scores were 12-3 and 3-0.

In the first game Centerfielder Don Visconti paced the Spartan attack with a grand slam homer and a single to drive in five of the Spartans twelve runs. Dick Brady also hit a four-baser for the Spartans. Jim Conover and Ruben Gutierrez hit round trippers for the losers.

Kauffman limited the Bengals to 7 hits in pitching the win. Seagle started for the Tigers and was the loser.

Spartan southpaw Johnny Oldham continued his mastery over the Tigers giving up just 3 hits and no runs in the 7-inning night cap. He aided his own cause by belting a two-run homer.

San Jose jumped on the Tigers for three runs in the first two innings off right hander Dave home courts. The only victory for the COP team came when the doubles team of Fowler-Cottrell upset Lauritzen-Williams 6-2, 6-3.

Severely weakened by the losses of three top men, the tennis prospects have been undeniably poor. However, it is expected that the Pacific racket squad may possibly upset St. Mary's and the four remaining matches of the present season.

Don't Vote Without Thinking—

In a democracy much depends upon the degree to which voters take their election responsibility seriously and insist upon the very best government from the most capable leaders. Emotionally based campaigning and voting generally results in weak and incompetent administration, while a thoughtful approach to this important responsibility has its counter-part in intelligent, responsible government.

The current P.S.A. election campaign has been a vigorous and hard-fought one. On the whole it has been conducted cleanly and fairly. However, those of us who feel that student government is one of the most valuable experiences in a college education will continue to insist upon level-headed campaigning, clearly conceived and cleanly executed, until the polls are closed next Wednesday. There is too much at stake in a spring P.S.A. election to allow even one race to degenerate into a popularity contest or an exhibit of mud-throwing.

The sincere thanks of the entire student body should be extended to all who have taken the time to run for office. Win or lose, they have rendered a real service to the college and their fellow students by focusing attention upon the significance of student government.

PHIL WOGAMAN

LETTERS

TO THE EDITOR...

Dear Editor:

I been reading about this paper you been putting out every Friday, and I think it's a shame.

I also been reading a book for a class. The name of this book is The Communist Problem in America. It was wrote by a guy named Palmer. Anyhow, at the back of this book, they got a list of things what are supposed to be Communist, or have something to do with Communists. Anyhow, right there on one of the pages is the name Pacific Weekly.

Now I don't know whether you been one of those Reds, or even if you still are one. But if you are, I think they ought to fix it so you ain't anymore. The paper ain't anymore, that is.

I don't care for them Communists very much, and on a school like this, there is no place for them.

Probably you don't know about having a communist paper, but you ought to do something about it quick.

It was right there in that book about the Communists in the U.S. of A.

Yours truly,
George Fowler

Decision Made On Procedure

The final decision that it was not illegal for a candidate to file petitions for two offices was made by the Student Affairs Committee last Monday.

This situation arose when one of the candidates in the PSA elections took out petitions for two offices, had them signed and turned in; then decided two days later which petition would be withdrawn.

The student affairs committee could find nothing in the constitution or election handbook that seemed to specifically refer to this situation; so after the candidate in question gave an explanation for the actions, and told the student affairs committee the sources consulted before the double filing, the candidate was allowed to remain in the election campaigns.

The student affairs committee did recommend, however, that the section of the PSA Constitution dealing with election procedures be studied and clarified by the constitution revision committee of the senate. No specific changes were requested, merely clarification.

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF ASIAN STUDIES AFFILIATED WITH COP

The affiliation of the American Academy of Asian Studies of San Francisco as a graduate school of the College of the Pacific which was announced Tuesday, will be the occasion for a special convocation on Monday at 11 a.m. in the auditorium.

No classes will be held during the hour, and Forum Arts credit applies according to the announcement of Dean Davis.

Principal speakers for the convocation will be Pacific President Robert E. Burns, Louis P. Gainsborough, founder of the Academy, and Alan Watts, Dean of the Academy.

The tie-up between the two institutions was major educational news throughout California. The Academy joins the oldest chartered college in the state with the youngest institution offering work at graduate levels.

Burns and Gainsborough signed agreements of the affiliation, as approved by the trustees of the College and the governors of the Academy, on Tuesday in San Francisco.

Under terms of the association the American Academy of Asian Studies is now a graduate school of the College of the Pacific but retains its own corporate status and will continue to operate in its present building at 2030 Broadway, San Francisco.

Former president of the Academy, Gainsborough is now chairman of its board of governors. The union adds to Pacific's academic structure, which is organized in 22 major departments and already includes a school of education and a conservatory of music.

For the College of the Pacific, Burns said, "Affiliation with the Academy makes Pacific one of the first colleges in America with a distinct graduate school of Asian studies. In adopting the Academy we hope to help strengthen its special approach to the understanding of the East, which combines sound scholarship with special attention to the spirit and meaning of Asian culture."

An international business man, traveler, and scholar, Gainsborough first planned an institution devoted solely to the study of Asia because of his concern about the ignorance which he believes separates peoples and blocks free world hopes. He found American colleges and universities had almost entirely ignored Asia, particularly the areas outside Japan and China — areas containing almost half of mankind. He started his own school as a nucleus for the expansion of Asian studies in the United States.

The graduate division of the Academy presents a curriculum under Asian and American educators leading to the master of arts and the doctor of philosophy degrees. The first degrees earned at the Academy will be conferred by the College of the Pacific at its commencement in Stockton on June 13.
